- Blue band is a jacket potato
- Yellow band is a packed lunch made by the school

3:10 pm This is when school finishes and I go home.

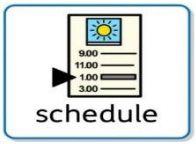
- Where I can sit in my new class:

- Where I can eat my lunch:

- I will have PE on Monday afternoons.

- Birthday Assembly

When it is nearly time for my birthday there will be a Birthday Assembly. We celebrate the birthdays of the children from the previous 2 months. Anyone is invited to come and celebrate!



What I will probably do on the first day:

Tabletop activities to make my fingers strong, like using playdough.

Circle time so I can meet all my new Reception friends.

Indoor and outdoor time where I can explore and choose the activities I like to do.

Eat snack.

More indoor and outdoor time.

Story time.

Get ready to go home.

Go home.

Here are some photos of my new Reception Class

Our Early Years Playground

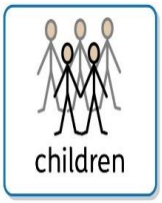
Our Secret Woodland Garden

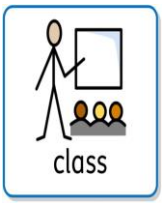
Our School Guinea Pigs.

Meet Cookie and Cream! Cream is hiding in the den; he does this a lot. As for Cookie, he is very cheeky and a bit noisy.

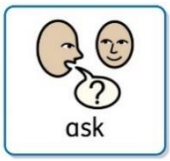
Our School Library.

Every Tuesday there is Library club, you can choose a book to take home.



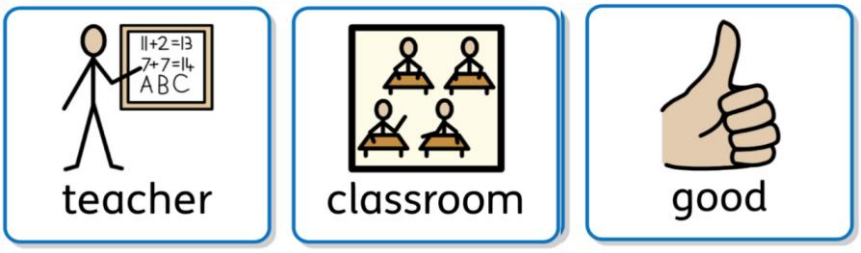


Lots of children feel worried and maybe excited when they are starting something new. It is helpful to remember that all the grown-ups in school want you to be happy and want to help you.



Remember it is ok to ask questions.

Your parents, teacher and teaching assistants will help you.



It is likely that you can soon settle in and enjoy the new things that you do.

You are on the way to being ready for your first school year!

Well done you!
